DAVIS THEATRE

Complete Change of Program To day; New Vaudoville and Triangle Photoplays.

Everything will be entirely new at the Davis today both, vaudeville and pictures will be changed and the show billed for the last half of the week promises to surpass anything ever seen here. The feature vaudeville at-traction is the Clemenso Brothers two musical comedy thowns who present a big time novelty act the like of which has never been seen here, they carry a special musical setting and their offering is one that will cause more talk than any other act in vaumore talk than any other act in vaudeville today. Another good act is presented by Powers and West, a clever team who have a comedy singing and talking offering introducing some new ideas into the vaudeville stage and dealing out some real live wire comedy. The Triangle feature is called Going Straight, a five part Griffth production featuring Norma Talmadge and Ralph Lewis, the following is a brief synopsis of the staryJimmy Briggs, a crook, recognizes in John Remington, a respectable and prosperous real estate man, his former pertner in crime, Higgins, who is now partner in crime, Higgins, who is now going straight. Remington's wife, Grace used to be a member of the gang, too, but for the sake of their children, both have given up the old life of crime. Briggs blackmails Hemington under threat of exposure of Grace as an accomplice in some bygone crimes and eventually persuades Remington to join him in one more robbery. The house selected for the stealing chances to be one where Grace is a guest for the week end; and she sur-prises Briggs in the act of taking some jewels. Remington, inding Briggs struggling with his wife, strikes hir aring burglar, Briggs. The outcom is rarely thrilling.

To complete the show there is a tw reel Keystone comedy called Am-brose's Cup of Woe and Mack Swain is the star in this funny picture, this is a real Keystone comedy and has more laguhs than a three ring circum. There will be the usual three shows today, matines at 2:15, all seats 10 cents; evening at 6:45 and 8:45, 10, 15 and 20 cents. No matter how warm it is on the street the Davia is always cool and composition. cool and comfortable.

BULLETIN'S PATTERN SERVICE

1732-1725

A SMART SUMMER GOWN. This Combines Ladies' Waist Pattern 1732 and Ludies' Skirt Pattern 1725.

In white linon with trimming of blue or tan this would make a smart "sport" coat. In percale, seersucker, striped or enecked gingham, champrey or hawn, it will serve nicely for a morning dress or one for purch wear. Skirt and evalst may be developed separately. One could choose serge, poplin or infest for the skirt, and linen, lawn, batiste, makes or tub silk for the walst.

The skirt pattern is cut in seven sizes; 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32 and 34 inches, walst measure. It will require 3 7-8 yards of 44-inch,material for a medium size. The wast pattern is cut in six sizes; 24, 26, 28, 40, 42 and 44 inches, bust measure. Size 36 will require 2 1-4 yards of 36-inch material. The skirt measures about 3 1-4 yards at the foot. This illustration calls for TWO separate patterns, which will be mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents for PACH pattern in sliver or stamps. Order through The Bulleth Company, Pattern Dept., Norwich, Com.

A Rude Suggestion.

Why not run Carranza for president? He has done more for American preparedness in three weeks than Wilson has done in three years.— Minneapolis Journal.

POETRY

Than win by a trick unfair;
It is better to fall and to know you've been.
Whatever the prize was, square,
Than to claim the joy of a far-off goal
And the cheers of the standers-by,
And to know down deep in your inmost soul

The prize seems fair when the fight is

That your glory is all a lie.

-Edgar A. Guest, in Detroit Free

A lady of sagacity and beautiful audacity once had the pertinacity to ask me, at her door:

"If I can find a mintster who is not bold or sinister—why should I stay a spinister—and you a bacheldore?"

It was no time for puttering or stammering or stuttering, and so I hastened uttering as fast as I could speak:

The Philippine hand-embroidery industry has made rapid progress during the past year. The trade is almost altogether with the United States, and special impetus has been given to it by the European war. The supply of embroideries from Europe having been cut off to a large degree, buyers in the United States have been compelled to turn elsewhere, and their attention has been drawn to the Philippines with the result that orders

Will Sloan's Liniment Relieve Pain? Try it and see—one application will prove more than a column of claims. James S.
